BlueRock Diamonds PLC ('BlueRock' or the 'Company')
Operations Recommended Following Lifting of Temporary Suspension at Kareevlei

BlueRock Diamonds PLC, the AIM listed diamond producer, which owns and operates the Kareevlei Diamond Mine ('Kareevlei') in the Kimberley region of South Africa, announces that further to the Company's announcement of 24 January 2019, the temporary suspension of operations at Kareevlei due to the imposition of a section 54 notice from South Africa's mining regulator (the Department of Mineral Resources) received on 22 January 2019 has been lifted and operations have now recommenced.

The Company is also pleased to report that the individual involved in the accident is expected to make a full recovery.

As previously stated, the temporary suspension is not expected to impact upon the Company's production volume guidance for the year.
